You will have an opportunity to participate in a variety of workshops of interest to parents and caregivers of trans, nonbinary, & gender independent children and youth, and build community with other families.

Older Adults & Seniors (age 55+)

We are offering an intergenerational program stream that invites older adults (age 55+) who are trans, non-binary and gender independent to work along side youth on writing projects. Join us to participate and create intergenerational trans+ community connections.
